

Business English Vocabulary (3)

Abbreviations: v = verb, n = noun, adj = adjective, adv = adverb, idm = idiom, phr v = phrasal verb convince (v) /kən'vɪns/ to make someone believe that something is true

: Their reason for the late delivery didn't convince me.
: We convinced the manager to buy new computers for the design department.

consensus (n) /kən'sensəs/ a general agreement, agreement
: We couldn't reach a consensus on oil prices.
: There is a lack of consensus among politicians.

distribute (v) /dɪ'strɪbjʊ:t/ hand out, deliver
: We distribute our products using our company-owned trucks.
: You are allowed to distribute copies of free software.

downsize (v) /'daʊnsaɪz/ reduce, decrease, lower
: The company is planning to downsize its employees by 20%.
: How to keep employees motivated after downsizing?

dress code (n) /dres-/ /kəʊd/ the rules about what to wear in a particular situation
: What is your company's dress code policy?
: My company decided to enforce a strict dress code.

export (v) /'eksɔːrt/ to send products or goods to another country
: My company exports seafood to Japan.
: Many of our products have been exported to overseas markets.

extend (v) /ɪk'stend/ expand, lengthen, increase
: We have decided to extend our product range.
: I asked them to extend the deadline to March 25th.

import (v) /'ɪmpɔːrt/ to bring in products or services from another country.
: We import raw materials from African countries.
: Meat products are imported from New Zealand.

import (n) /'ɪmpɔːrt/ products or services that are brought in from another country
: Beef imports from New Zealand will be increased.
: You need an import license to import goods.

improve (v) /ɪm'pru:v/ to make something better, get better
: What can we do to improve our business?
: We need to improve the quality of our products continually.

improvement (n) /ɪm'pru:vmənt/ enhancement, refinement
: The new models have shown significant improvements.
: The company needs some good business improvement ideas.

inform (v) /ɪn'fɔːrm/ tell, let someone know
: I will inform you of the price increase by the end of March.
: The president has informed us that he will retire next month.

inventory (n) /'ɪnvəntɔːri/ list, record
: The company needs an inventory management system.
: Every six months, we take an inventory of everything in our shop.