

Common English Mistakes (3)

Don't say: I want to success in life.

Say: I want to succeed in life.

Don't say: I told him don't come late.

Say: I told him not to come late.

Don't say: I forgot my wallet in the office.

Say: I left my wallet in the office.

Don't say: She goes to work by walk.

Say: She goes to work on foot.

Don't say: My boss speaks English good.

Say: My boss speaks English well.

Don't say: Andrew is very success.

Say: Andrew is very successful.

Don't say: I saw a tall man with a black jacket.

Say: I saw a tall man in a black jacket.

Don't say: My boyfriend gave me a real nice present.

Say: My boyfriend gave me a nice present.

Don't say: We had less customers yesterday.

Say: We had fewer customers yesterday.

Don't say: I am agree with you.

Say: I agree with you.

Don't say: Everyone are happy with the new manager.

Say: Everyone is happy with the new manager.

Don't say: Every employees like the new manager.

Say: Every employee likes the new manager.

Don't say: My grandfather dead last week.

Say: My grandfather died last week.

Don't say: I will ask to my boss.

Say: I will ask my boss.

Don't say: My friend eats much fatty foods.

Say: My friend eats a lot of fatty foods.

Don't say: We are studying English every day.

Say: We study English every day.